WAIVER OF FIVE DAYS' NOTICE

WORCESTER, SS:

1st District Court
of Eastern Worcester

sect 30, cap. 207

WHEREAS it has been represented to this Court by Elliot Perkins, of WESTWOOD in our county of Norfolk and Josephine Cheate, of SOUTHBOROUGH in our county of Worcester, that a marriage between them is intended; and WHEREAS they each have applied for a certificate, which shall waive the necessity of a five days' delay after the filing of their notices of intention, and stating that in the Court's opinion it is expedient that said intended marriage be solemnized without delay, as provided in section 30 of chapter 207 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth:

Now, therefore, after hearing such evidence as was presented in favour of said application, this is to certify that in my opinion it is expedient that said marriage contemplated by and between said parties be solemnized without any delay.
